

Enroll or Renew Your Health Plan! A Shorter Enrollment Period Means Less Time to Act

Remember the Affordable Care Act (aka “Obama Care”)? It’s still alive and open for business. If you aren’t covered by your employer or through a government program, you have from November 1st to December 15th to enroll in a Marketplace plan. There is a penalty for not having health insurance, so don’t wait until the last minute. For more information on what you need to do, check out this article on the AARP website: <https://www.aarp.org/health/health-insurance/info-2017/open-enrollment-changes-fd.html?intcmp=AE-ALRT-ACAENROLL>

